Remarks in eulogy were made by T. H. Pegram, R. P. Troy, W. C. Willson, John W. Lewis, John N. Andrews, S. V. Hoyle, M. V. Sherrill, and Joseph H. Wheeler.

MEMOIR OF CHARLES CARRELL DODSON.

Rev. Charles Carrell Dodson was born in Patrick county, Virginia, June 6, 1832; and departed this life in Winston, North Carolina, May 17, 1884. He was a good man, "full of faith and the Holy Ghost." He was converted to God in his sixteenth year, when he fully consecrated his life to the service of the Master, and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Soon he became conscious that his path of duty was in the regular work of the ministry, and in the fall of 1855 he entered Trinity College to prepare himself for his high calling. In November, 1856, he was licensed to preach; which he did during his vacations, and as opportunity offered while engaged in his studies in College. He graduated in June, 1860, among the first in his class. On the 10th of July of the same year he was married to Miss Margaret Leach, daughter of the late James Leach of Randolph county, N. C.; and in the following September he took charge of a High School near Springfield, Missouri. In 1861, when the late civil war commenced, he returned to North Carolina, and entered the army, and served as Chaplain for two years, of the 46th regiment of the army of Northern Virginia. He joined the North Carolina Annual Conference at its session held at Greensboro, N. C., December, 1863. He was appointed to the following Pastoral charges in the order named, to-wit: Forsyth Circuit, Madison Circuit, Wilson Station, Everitsville Circuit, Tarboro Circuit, Pittsboro Circuit, Kinston Station, Wilson Station, Thomasville and High Point, and Winston Station.

Rev. C. C. Dodson was a faithful Pastor, looking carefully after all the interests of the Church, and watching diligently over the flock under his care. While in the army the sick and wounded had no more faithful and tender nurse; nor any wiser spiritual adviser. He was laborious and self-sacrificing in his efforts to promote the physical and spiritual interests of the soldier.

Mr. Dodson was always a student, and an extensive reader, and he read such books as fed the mind and improved the heart. Hence he was a growing preacher up to the day of his death. His preaching was of a high order, spiritual and instructive; and often he preached with great power. His preaching was owned by the Great Head of the Church, in bringing souls to Christ, and in edifying the Church. His object was ever to do good.

No purer man ever lived than Charles C. Dodson. He was free from guile, and true in all his relations of life. He was a true citizen, taking a deep interest in the welfare of the State and of the nation. His friendship was steadfast. He never betrayed his trust. He was a faithful and loving husband and father. He loved his family devotedly. He was a man of prayer and of faith. He took hold of the promises of God with all his soul; and was constant in his habits of piety. He daily communed with God his Saviour. When the last conflict came he was ready. His experience was clear and soul animating. He grew in grace as he grew in years, always submissive to the Divine will, patient in suffering and triumphant in death. "He rests from his labors; and his works do follow him."

JOHN N. COLE read the Memoir of JESSE H. GUINN. Remarks in eulogy were made by L. L. NASH, J. H. CORDON, W. S. HALES, JOHN R. BROOKS, and P. J. CARRAWAY.

MEMOIR OF JESSE H. GUINN.

Jesse H. Guinn was born in about 1841, near Danville, Va. He enjoyed but few educational advantages in early life. He grew up to manhood in the rude strength of a most highly endowed mind, without training—without culture, in utter unconsciousness of the possibilities of a life that was to measure with the noblest and best of men. His early religious life was not good. Raised up with the most perverted views of doctrinal truth, under the belief that man could do nothing to secure his salvation, he neglected all the religious duties of life and gave himself to unrestrained and repeated transgression of the law of righteousness. In the latter years of his life, he invariably spoke of himself to his intimate friends, as having been one of "the chief of sinners."

In the war between the States, he followed the flag of his country, until that flag was furled in defeat at Appomattox.

Soon after the war he was married to Nannie K. Lyon of Davie county, N. C.

In 1871 he was converted to Christ. In the close of that year, he joined the North Carolina Conference; and, from that time, he dated a career of spiritual and intellectual development in his own life and of large usefulness in the church of God that is rarely seen among men. He served on Carteret Circuit in 1872, on Stanly Circuit in 1873, on Wadesboro Circuit in 1874, 1875, 1876 and 1877, on Monroe Station in 1878, 1879 and 1880, on Wilson Station in 1881, 1882 and 1883. We venture to say that no man ever wrought in these fields with a larger success; no man received a diviner seal to his ministry; no man left the odor of a holier life.

He was appointed to Rockingham Station for 1884. Here he continued that most signal career of pulpit ministration and of pastoral service which had distinguished the whole of his previous ministry, until early in June, when the Master said, "It is enough." After a few days illness, on the 10th of June he fell on sleep, and was not, for God took him; and so he is ever with the Lord.

As a preacher, brother Guinn had a peculiar career. There has probably been no man among us, who, from so small a beginning, made so great an end; who, from such rude material, raised so grand a temple; and from such poverty amassed such wealth of wisdom and power and beauty. It may probably be said of him, what can be said of but few men, that he could not have done more than he did in the course of his short ministerial life. Brother Guinn was only truly known and loved by those who waited regularly upon his ministry. Hence, his reputation as a great preacher was not understood by the church at large. He possessed few of the external accomplishments of a popular preacher. He did not excel in the breadth of literary culture. He had no science in his preaching—no human speculation. There was no guessing when he spoke from the sacred desk. He preached from the Word of God and from his own spiritual life. And when he thus preached, he was the master of a fervid eloquence. He was like unto one whose head was anointed with the holy oil, whose heart was on fire with divine truth and whose lips were touched with the grace of utterance. Though unschooled in letters and untrained by the great masters, yet when he stood up for his Lord, under the inspiration that he was called of God to preach, he spoke in "the unblemished fashion of pure and fitting words." There are those of us here to-night who have seen the movements of his mind when it had the majesty of an archangel's flight, "when his very spirit was unloosed and, bending a pinion for a deeper sky, he seemed in the very fetters of the flesh to be mating with the pure essences of heaven."

As a student and thinker, brother Guinn possessed a singularly clear and discerning mind. He almost intuitively discerned truth from error. His mind was like the alchemist's crucible, separating the dross from the gold. On the great cardinal doctrines of an unlimited atonement and of a conditional salvation, he surpassed all men I ever heard.

As a man, the purity of his life was the great attraction of his person. There was no guile in his soul, there was no hate in the chamber of his heart, there was no slander on his tongue. If he had a fault that would mar the character of a Christian gentleman, I never saw it.

As a friend, he gave honor to the relationship and made it something more than a name. He was true, though all the world proved false. To those of us who knew him well and reclined upon his bosom and lived in his affection, his life was a blessing from God; and now that he is gone, his memory is precious and lingers with us "like the benediction that follows after prayer."

We cannot more fittingly close these memorials of one whom we loved as a brother, than in those beautiful lines of Halleck:

"Green be the turf above thee,
Friend of my earlier days,
None knew thee but to love thee,
None named thee but to praise."

J. T. BAGWELL read the Memoir of SAMUEL C. PHARR, a supply on the Charlotte District.

Remarks in eulogy were made by J. T. BAGWELL, P. J. CARRAWAY and JOHN W. LEWIS.

MEMOIR OF SAMUEL C. PHARR, D. D.

Rev. Samuel C. Pharr, D. D., was born March 19th, 1826, and died March 17th, 1884. His grandfather, Samuel C. Caldwell, and his father, Walter S. Pharr, were both eminent ministers of the Presbyterian church. Dr. Pharr's early advantages were unusually good. After graduating from Davidson College when a mere boy, he was graduated from Princeton and Union Theological Seminary.

He began his ministry in the Presbyterian church in 1846, serving at different times Sharon, Hopewell, Paw Creek, Thyatira and Franklin churches.

In the interim of some of these pastorates, he filled a professor's chair in Tennessee University, Knoxville, and in Davidson College, N. C. The degree of D. D. was conferred by Princeton.

In 1875 he severed his connection with the Presbyterian church, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. While employed as supply on the Rockingham Circuit in 1882, he was stricken with paralysis, from which he never recovered. Gradually he declined until God loosed the silver chord on the 17th of March, 1884. Dr. Pharr was a man of superior intellectual endowments and fine preaching ability. His quick and retentive memory, richly furnished with a large and varied stock of knowledge, together with remarkable fluency and rhetorical expression, made him a most entertaining and instructive preacher. But his work among us is done, the eloquent tongue is hushed. He has gone from the church below to the church above. His end was peaceful and triumphant. A man of genius and power has gone from the region where we see through a glass darkly to the realm of higher, clearer thought and the fields of broader discovery. An humble child of God has gone to enjoy gracious benediction in the house of his father. He rests from his labors—his works follow him.

The report of the committee was then unanimously adopted.

JOHN R. BROOKS introduced the following resolution, which was read and adopted.

WHEREAS, Since our last session, our beloved church has been bereft of two of her most honored and beloved Bishops, Hubbard H. Kavanaugh and George F. Pierce; therefore,

Resolved, That, while bowing submissively to the will of Providence, expressed in this bereavement, we would, at the same time, magnify the Grace of God shown in His gift to the Church of these eminently holy and useful ministers and chief pastors of the flock of Christ.

On motion of E. A. YATES, the Conference adjourned.

MISSIONARY BOARD—ANNIVERSARY MEETING.

SATURDAY EVENING, November 29th, 1884.

The Missionary Board of the North Carolina Annual Conference held its anniversary meeting at Front Street Methodist Church at 7½ o'clock, REV. F. D. SWINDELL, President, in the chair. Opening services were conducted by REV. R. A. WILLIS.

REV. A. R. RAVEN, Secretary, presented the following report:

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DOMESTIC BOARD OF MISSIONS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE.

There are twenty-four pastoral charges in the bounds of the North Carolina Conference known as Missions, that is, societies and communities which are not able, unaided, to provide themselves with the gospel. These have been faithfully served the past year by ministers of this Conference, assisted by funds appropriated by our Domestic Board of Missions. The financial aid afforded them by us was necessarily small, and would have been inadequate had the year been one of usual commercial prosperity. These men of God have, therefore, labored under great disadvantages the past year, and proved by their faithfulness their devotion to the great cause to which the Master has called and the church has sent them. From fields to which many of them went at the beginning of the year and "sowed in tears," they have returned at its close with rejoicing, bringing tidings of many precious sheaves—redeemed souls won to Christ.

After a careful review of the various mission fields of this Conference, which have been reported to us, it affords the Board great satisfaction to report that we find in many of them unmistakable indications of spiritual prosperity and substantial evidence of material growth and development.

A few of these mission fields have already developed into self-supporting charges, and still others give promise of such development at an early day.

We feel that the church has cause for gratitude to God, and encouragement to give still more liberally of their means to aid us in sending the everlasting gospel into the regions that are still beyond, and that are calling loudly for it, but to which we cannot yet respond for want of larger means. Men and brethren, help!

We trust that the contributions of our church in North Carolina for Home Missions will be increased at least 50 per cent. the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

A. R. RAVEN,

Sec'y Board of Missions N. C. Conference.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your committee to whom was referred the examination of the District Conference Records for the year 1884, beg leave to submit the following report:

The journals of the Raleigh, Hillsboro, Greensboro, Salisbury, Statesville, Shelby, Fayetteville, Wilmington, Warrenton and Washington Districts, ten in number, have been placed in our hands. We have not seen the journals of the Charlotte and New Berne districts.

We have patiently and with great care examined the journals that have been presented, and are glad to report them in very fair condition; yet some errors occur, which the committee cannot let pass unnoticed.

In the journal of the Shelby District several sessions are reported as having adjourned without specifying how they adjourned. In the journal of the second session, the following entry is made: "Several members and delegates reported present since the morning sessions." The names of those reported as having arrived should have been given, but were not. On page 9, an animated discussion is reported as having taken place, without specifying the subject under discussion.

The journal of Fayetteville District is defective in having no roll of members. On the second page, reports from the preachers are said to have been given in writing, but no such reports are recorded. Several sessions of the Conference are reported as having adjourned without stating how they adjourned.

On pages 268 and 269 of the journal of the Wilmington District, important words, necessary to convey the meaning intended, are omitted in a copied report.

The journal of the Washington District Conference at the opening of several sessions, fails to record that the minutes of the previous sessions were read and approved. On page 180 a resolution is offered, referring to and recommending a "Southern Quarterly Review," published at Atlanta, Ga. Of the existence of such a Review, all the members of the Conference are entirely ignorant. On page 178, important matter is omitted, and is recorded after the Conference is reported to have adjourned, which very much mars the appearance of the journal.

The journals of the Raleigh, Hillsboro, Greensboro, Salisbury, Statesville and Warrenton Districts are admirably kept, and the secretaries deserve our highest commendation.

The following suggestions occurred to the committee :

1. Each journal should have been carefully paged.

2. The expression "members and delegates," is superfluous, in that delegates are members.

3. Each session of the Conference should have been dated.

4. The closing session of each Conference should have been indicated as such by the journal.

5. More care as to punctuation and grammatical construction, and also to paragraphing would have added much to the correctness of some of the journals.

T. J. GATTIS, Chairman.

J. ED. THOMPSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

We, your committee on Books and Periodicals, submit the following report :

1ST. PUBLISHING HOUSE.

We are glad to know, through the printed report from our Publishing House at Nashville, and also through its efficient business manager, Bro. Palmer, that it is not only rapidly diminishing the large debt that has been so embarrassing heretofore, but that the business is increasing and promises still greater results. We are gratified at the fact that the mechanical work will compare favorably with any house North or South, and we urge our ministers and people to patronize the Nashville Publishing House in preference to any other.

2D. THE NASHVILLE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

The Christian Advocate, published at Nashville, and edited by Rev. O. P. Fitzgerald, D. D., is one of our great forces, and reflects credit upon its able editor and manager. We earnestly ask our ministers and people to make it a greater success by enlarging its work in increasing its twenty-six thousand subscribers to fifty thousand.

3D. THE ADVOCATE OF MISSIONS.

The Advocate of Missions, published at Nashville, is an important teacher in bringing our people face to face with the great missionary work before the church ; we would, therefore, press upon preachers and people the importance of a wider circulation of this paper.

4TH. THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY ADVOCATE.

The Woman's Missionary Advocate, published in the interest of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, deserves the support of the ladies of our church, and we heartily recommend it.

5TH. SUNDAY SCHOOL LITERATURE.

We heartily endorse and recommend to our people the Sunday School Magazine, Lesson Quarterlies, Sunday School Visitor, and Lesson Papers, and respectfully insist upon their use in all of our Sunday Schools throughout the church. Our children ought to have our own literature. Still we would most respectfully suggest that the Sunday School Editors so arrange the questions and notes on the lessons as to bring out the Methodist doctrine and spiritual teachings contained in the texts; that the Magazine contain the Explanatory Notes and Lesson Hints of the Quarterlies; that the answers in "Our Little People" be simplified and that the pictures made on these papers be such as will illustrate the lessons.

6TH. THE RALEIGH CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

The Raleigh Christian Advocate, the organ of the North Carolina Conference, we are glad to know, is doing a great work in the cause of our Master and Methodism in North Carolina, and we rejoice, with its editors, in its continued prosperity and popularity. While its circulation has nearly doubled in the last six years, yet we feel assured that its usefulness can be extended by a larger circulation, and we respectfully ask the preachers and people to see to it that every Methodist family in our Conference read it. We recommend its continuation as the organ of the North Carolina Conference, and respectfully ask the Bishop to appoint Rev. W. S. Black, D. D., and Rev. F. L. Reid, Editors.

Respectfully submitted.

R. G. BARRETT, Chairman.

L. J. HOLDEN, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

WHEREAS, of all the evils that afflict our land mentally, materially and morally, drunkenness and the drinking of spirituous liquors is, on the testimony of both of the friends and enemies of temperance, incomparably the greatest, destroying human life and prosperity, and happiness and hope; and whereas, there is no other barrier to the progress of the gospel so great as this, or so ruinous to the spiritual interests of vast numbers; and whereas, the church that we represent has always occupied the most positive and advanced ground, both in her discipline and pulpit, supported by the plainness of the Bible as to the sin of intemperance; therefore,

Resolved 1st, That we hail with gladness the existing evidences of the growth of the prohibition sentiment, and will use all wise influences and measures for its extension, believing legal prohibition to be the speediest remedy for this great evil.

Resolved 2*d*, That we look with interest to our State Legislature, soon to convene, for such additional laws as will tend to restrain and suppress drunkenness and the whiskey traffic, and make more effective those already existing.

Resolved 3*d*, That we will be diligent and faithful in making effective the excellent rules of our Discipline as to the use of intoxicating beverages by those within our own church.

Respectfully submitted,

W. S. Rone, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

Your committee on Bible Cause beg leave to report, that, inasmuch as the Bible is the word of God, and therefore designed for the benefit of all men they regard its distribution in our State and country, and in all lands, as the especial duty of the church, and next in importance to the preaching of the gospel; and whereas, they believe there is a great lack of expressed interest on the part of our ministers and laymen in reference to the Bible cause throughout our borders, they present the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we continue to recognize the American Bible Society as an efficient agent in distributing the pure word of God among all nations, and that we repledge it our hearty co-operation and support.

Resolved, That we encourage the organization of Auxiliary Societies at all available places in our borders.

I. L. WRIGHT, Chairman.

J. H. SOUTHGATE, Secretary.

(Document No. 6.)

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SOUTHERN QUARTERLY REVIEW.

In this age of advanced thought, of scientific investigation and theological research, the church has imperative need of such a publication as a first class Review. Our need is not fully met in periodical literature of lower grade, nor do our books supply the specific need to which reference is had. Our preachers, and the more intelligent among our reading laymen, need a periodical that shall bring fresh to them the best thoughts of the best minds in every department of discovery and human endeavor. The church, too, needs such a publication as an educational factor for its ministers and leading laymen, and as a potent instrumentality for the interpretation, elucidation and defence of its doctrines.

Now believing that this need of a periodical of the character of a Review is adequately met by the Southern Quarterly Review, edited and published by the Rev. J. W. Hinton, D. D., Macon, Ga., therefore, your committee do earnestly recommend the said Review to the reading public as in every way worthy their patronage, and respectfully suggest to our ministers and laymen the propriety of sustaining by their patronage this highest periodical of the church.

(Signed) J. T. GIBBS,
J. T. BAGWELL.
W. S. CREASY,
Committee.

REPORT No. 1, OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education beg leave to report as follows on

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE:

We are much gratified at the unparalleled prosperity of this excellent institution. The liberality displayed by the company in expenditures for the improvement of the premises, as well as their good judgment in the selection of the faculty, can but afford the highest satisfaction to the friends of female education in all denominations.

We do not believe that Greensboro Female College ever maintained a higher standard of excellence or ever did better work than it is doing now.

We, therefore, heartily recommend the following:

Resolved, That in Greensboro Female College the Methodist Church of North Carolina has an institution of learning, for the education of girls, of which they may well be proud, and that those who entrust to it, under its present management, the education of their daughters, may be assured that they are not only well cared for, but enjoy advantages of culture and learning second to no institution in the whole South.

W. H. MOORE, Chairman.

W. M. ROBEY, Secretary.

(Document No. 8.)

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY.

Your committee on Church Property make the following report:

By reference to the statistics of 1883, there were 831 churches valued at $880,613. At present there are 848 churches valued at $933,292. In 1883, there were 94 parsonages, valued at $112.034. We have now 96 parsonages, valued at $121,775.

While we cannot report as many additional parsonages built this year as were reported for 1883, still, taking in consideration the unprecedented financial stringency of the past year, we believe the interest among the people in the duty of providing comfortable homes for their preachers is unabated; and that with the return of better times and more favorable crop seasons, we shall see marked progress in the repairing and building of parsonages wherever the necessity may exist. We renew the injunction of the committee of 1883, and urge upon our people the importance of securing parsonages on every District, Circuit and Station where we have them not, and furnish them at least with heavy furniture; and we respectfully request all the preachers and their families, who are to occupy the parsonages, that they exercise a close personal oversight over the property temporarily under their charge, so that a broken window-pane or gate hinge, as the case may be, shall receive attention at once and prompt repairs be done. We renew the warning so frequently urged upon our people to secure undisputed title to all church buildings and property, for which proper deeds have not been obtained, and not to build upon any site until title to the same has been secured.

We offer the following resolution :

Resolved, That we will do our best to encourage the people to build, repair and furnish parsonages and churches, wherever needed, and to make these buildings large enough for the accommodation of preachers and people.

H. C. Wall, Chairman.

J. C. Brown, Secretary.

REPORT No. 2, OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Central Institute for Young Ladies,

Is located in Warren county, N. C., 21 miles west of Weldon, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad. The property is owned by a joint stock company and controlled by a Board of Directors, the majority of whom are Methodists.

There is a good comfortable building, sufficiently large for the accommodation of the pupils, and a campus of ten acres affords ample space for recreation.

Central Institute is located above the malarial section of the State, so that parents need have no fear for the health of their children.

By a provision in the charter, for every $50 donated from any source whatever, one share is given to the North Carolina Conference, to be held by three trustees appointed by the Conference.

Rev. J. M. Rhodes, a member of this Conference, is Principal, and a healthy Methodistic influence is thrown about all the pupils and earnest effort is made for their salvation.

Resolved, That we heartily commend Central Institute for Young Ladies, to the patronage of our people, and cordially invite the co-operation of all in building up this institute.

Resolved, That this Conference elect Rev. R. O. Burton, D. D., E. A. Thorne, and Rev. J. W. Heptinstall, trustees to hold any and all property coming to us from Central Institute for Young Ladies.

W. H. Moore, Chairman.

W. M. Robey, Secretary.

REPORT No. 3 OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

JONESBORO HIGH SCHOOL,

Is located in the town of Jonesboro, Moore county, and is the property of the Fayetteville District. It is a Methodist school, and we are glad to know it is enjoying continued prosperity. We commend it to the patronage of our people.

W. H. MOORE, Chairman.

A PLAN FOR THE ENDOWMENT OF TRINITY COLLEGE.

WHEREAS, The plan for the adjustment of the present indebtedness of Trinity College, as reported to the Conference by the President of the Board of Trustees, will, if accepted by the Conference, with other available assets in hand, entirely relieve the College from financial embarrassment, and as the endowment of the College is necessary to meet the future educational wants of our denomination in the State; therefore,

Resolved, 1. We will raise one hundred thousand dollars as an Endowment Fund.

2. We will endeavor to raise at least $20,000 of this fund annually for the next five years, and if the whole $100,000 is not raised in five years, we will continue our efforts until that amount is secured.

3. To raise the fund it shall be the duty of the Presiding Elder of each District to hold educational meetings at the points he may deem most suitable in his work, and present the subject of the endowment and patronage of the College to all his Quarterly Conferences.

4. It shall be the duty of every pastor to co-operate with his Presiding Elder in the work of securing the endowment fund and increasing the patronage of the College, and keep an accurate account of all cash and notes raised in the bounds of his charge, and report the same to the Conference Board of Education.

5. The cash, as raised, shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, and the notes, as raised, shall be turned over into the hands of the Treasurer of the Board of Education.

6. The first and chief effort in raising the endowment fund shall be to solicit donations in cash. Where the donor prefers, notes in not more than five annual instalments may be received—the first note to fall due November 1st, 1885, and then 1st November each succeeding year.

7. The endowment fund, as collected in cash, shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the College.

8. The Treasurer of the Board of Trustees shall pay over annually to the Treasurer of the Faculty of the College six per cent. interest on all the cash paid into his hands as endowment fund, which interest shall be applied exclusively to the current expenses of the College.

9. To secure the endowment fund and the annual payment of its interest, the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the College shall execute and deliver into the hands of the Trustees of the College, and in favor of the College, a bond with good solvent and approved security for a sum not less than twice the amount of cash paid into his hands as endowment fund.

10. The bond and security of the Treasurer shall be annually reviewed and approved by the Board of Trustees of the College.

11. The endowment fund shall be forever held by the Trustees of Trinity College and their successors in office, and by the officers of their board and their successors in office, and by the Faculty, and by the Conference now owning, or Conferences which may own, said College, sacred and inviolate, and never to be applied as a whole or in any of its parts to any object or use whatever but the one sole purpose for which it was created by its contributors.

(Document No. 12.)

PROPOSITION TO RELIEVE TRINITY COLLEGE.

1st. It is proposed that the title to the property shall remain as it now is—with the North Carolina Conference.

2d. That the management of the institution shall be transferred for at least two years to a committee of management, composed of J. W. Alspaugh, President of the Board of Trustees, Julian S. Carr, Treasurer of said Board, and James A. Gray, of Winston, N. C.

3d. That the N. C. Conference shall raise for the benefit of the College during the years of 1885 and 1886, $2,500 annually, by assessments upon the various Presiding Elders' Districts, upon the same plan as adopted last year, only the raising of the said amount shall be insisted upon more thoroughly and observed more faithfully.

4th. That one-half of said amount of $2,500, or say $1,000 thereof, be invested in the much needed apparatus for the use of the College.

5th. That the committee of management above mentioned, shall have the benefit of all the receipts from tuition paid to the institution.

6th. That the committee of management shall guarantee to become responsible for the sum of $3,000 the first year, and $2,000 the second year as an additional supplement to the salaries of the Professors of the College.

7th. That while it is proposed to turn over the management of the institution to the committee of management, it is understood and agreed, if the Conference so insist, that all appointments to positions in the Faculty shall receive the endorsement of the Board of Trustees of the College.

8th. The committee of management shall have no authority to make any change in the Board of Trustees, but to manage the institution at all times, subject to the oversight of the Board of Trustees.

9th. At the expiration of two years, the committee shall stand ready to surrender the entire management of the College back to the Trustees and the Conference, with all improvements added, without any charge for their service or debt during their administration.

10th. It is further understood that the plan of endowment of the College, as agreed upon by the Board of Trustees at their meeting on Saturday night of this Conference, be prosecuted vigorously, and the committee of management in this proposition for endowment promise and pledge their most hearty and cordial co-operation and support.

Respectfully submitted,

J. S. Carr,
J. W. Alspaugh.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

One year ago it was the pleasure of the Board to congratulate this Conference on the large increase of Sunday schools and scholars within its bounds. We regret to learn from the statistics that the increase for this year is small. We had hoped that in this Centenary year there would be more than ordinary development in this very important field of our church labor. Why is it not realized? Perhaps the answer should be that our pastors and people have been lingering too long on the mountain, upheaved in the landscape of our beloved Methodism, when they ought to have been down in the valleys of the child-life of the church. To gaze with wonder and gratitude on monuments commemorative of great events in the past, is well; but to gather the living children of the present and prepare them to build broader and higher than the fathers did, is better. As we enter upon a new century of our organized existence, let us turn again to the teeming multitudes in the valleys.

It will be remembered that, in compliance with the will of the last General Conference, we submitted a year ago a plan for the organization of District Sunday School Conferences. We learn that under this Constitution ten Districts have organized and held Conferences during the year.

On account of the vast importance of the Sunday school as a necessary institution of the church, and to the end that its influence may be more extensively felt, and its work more thoroughly done; and in the belief that inferior assemblies of Sunday school workers will feed and further the interest and efficiency of the District Sunday School Conferences; therefore,

Resolved 1st, That Conferences embracing from one to five pastoral charges, according to convenience, and representing each church by at least three delegates, be held annually, as far as practicable, throughout the bounds of our Conference.

Resolved 2d. That the purposes of these Conferences be to increase the interest of our churches and communities in the Sunday school cause, and to more thoroughly prepare the teachers for their work.

Resolved 3d, That the pastors be charged with the duty of calling and organizing these Conferences.

Resolved 4th, That these Conferences be regarded as auxiliaries of the District Sunday School Conferences.

Resolved 5th, That pastors are hereby urged to have teachers' meetings held weekly, in connection with every Sunday school, wherever practicable, for the purpose of studying the lessons and looking after the general interest of the school.

Resolved 6th, That in every way the best literature and lesson helps for the use of our schools are our own publications, issued from Nashville, and we respectfully insist that our schools use them and no other.

Respectfully submitted,

W. S. RONE, President pro tem.

J. J. RENN, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION OF CONFERENCE JOURNAL.

The committee on the Publication of the Conference Journal, report as follows :

Upon investigation, we find that the cost of publishing the Journal of last year was $240, and that the Secretary has received of this amount $175, leaving a balance due Bro. D. W. Bain of $65.

In order to provide for this amount, we recommend the adoption of the following :

Resolved, That the Conference proceed at once to raise the amount due and pay the same over to Bro. D. W. Bain.

We further recommend that the Secretary, D. W. Bain, be authorized to publish 3,000 copies of the Journal of this session upon the same plan the last Journal was published.

Resolved, That before the adjournment of this Conference, the roll be called and that each member be requested to respond to his name and state how many copies of the Journal he will take and pay for at $1 per dozen, not to include postage and Express charges, and that the Secretary take his name and the amount pledged.

REPORT No. 4, OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education recommend that the sum of $2,500 be assessed upon the Conference for supplementing the salaries of the Faculty of Trinity College, and that the amount be distributed upon the several Districts on the basis of the assessment for the Conference Fund. We are much gratified that the prospects of the Institution seem to be brightening, and we earnestly recommend it to the patronage of all persons having sons to educate, as eminently worthy of their support.

THE DEAD OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE.

The Conference, at its session of 1883, adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That one page in our Journal be devoted to the memory of those who have died in our Conference since its organization, and that Rev. H. T. Hudson, D. D., is requested to prepare the "matter."

Dr. Hudson complied with the resolution as far as he could from the imperfect data in his possession, and the Secretary of the Conference, assisted by Rev. B. C. Phillips, has made such corrections as he was able to do from the incomplete earlier Journals of the Conference.

IN MEMORIAM.
